

ALL SAINTS LUTHERAN CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

MARCH 2024

*Know it well, love was his meaning. Who reveals it to you? Love. What did he reveal to you? Love.
Why does he reveal it to you? For love. Remain in this, and you will know more of the same.
But you will never know different, without end.*

In the 14th century, a woman whom we call Julian (her true name is not known), lived as an anchoress in the town of Norwich in England. During her time as anchoress, people would come to her seeking advice. She was thought of as a spiritual counsellor and with her belief of hope and the goodness of God, she helped many through the pain of the times, which were wracked with plague, poverty, and famine. When she was around 30 years old, Julian became extremely ill. During this time, she had 16 visions and insight into the suffering of Jesus Christ and his love for us that shaped her remaining years and inspired the writing of her book: “The Revelations of Divine Love”. Though we don’t know much more of her, through her writings she is revealed as an intelligent, sensitive, and very down-to-earth woman who maintains her trust in God’s goodness whilst addressing doubt, fear and deep theological questions.

This year on Good Friday we will surround ourselves with the love of Jesus Christ through meditations and music that are based on the writings of Julian of Norwich. The publishers at Augsburg Fortress write, “This worship experience draws on Julian’s reflections on life, love, and light. The work includes anthems, hymns, and short, spoken meditations.”

The service will begin and end with these words:

*“Faith, be our light in deepest night. Spirit of good, our endless day.
Blest be your holy trinity. You are the goodness of all things.”*

*“May Christ, all light, illumine your way.
May Christ, all life, freshen each day.
May Christ, all love, be your home and stay.”*

Wednesdays in Lent

Our midweek gatherings this season will focus on the Psalms. The psalms have been part of the worshipping life of God's people for over 3,000 years. They express the a wide range of human feelings and experiences, bringing these fully into our relationship with God.

Join us on Wednesdays in Lent for soup supper at 5:30, and at 6:00 table discussion around the Psalms. At 6:30 we will gather for Compline worship, with Psalm reflections.

A Lenten devotional guide focusing on each week's psalm will also be available at church for you to use at home. The discussion guide and devotional are created by Illustrated Ministry, with fun coloring pages, links to musical settings of psalms, and contemporary poetry adaptations of psalms.

A Little About Your Discussion Leader, Pastor Neal Mather.

Sue and I married in 1968. We began our nomadic journey in 1970 when I entered the Air Force. Two children followed, Cindy and Matt, who also became nomads making new "family" and friends across the U.S. I earned a BS degree in Mathematics, Teacher Education, 1970. In the Air Force, I was a combat crew member on B-52 and RC-135 aircraft. After retiring, I taught Business Administration and Management at Bellevue University (Nebraska). In 1996 I entered Wartburg Theological Seminary, graduating with a Masters in Divinity. I served churches in Nebraska before retiring to New Mexico. Sue and I are members of All Saints. In sum: the study of the Bible my passion!

ADVOCACY NOTE: GLOBAL REFUGE (Formerly Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services) – Part 1

For several years, All Saints has offered care to people after their hard journeys to the U.S./Mexico border. Many of the migrants are escaping dangerous conditions in their own countries and asking for asylum to live peacefully and productively among us. Thanks to Diana Lewis's initiation of a Rapid Response Team in 2018 and to Patrick and Rae VanDeMotters and Vicki Easson's current leadership roles in the Albuquerque Asylum Seeker Welcome organization, we have helped these travelers for years. We have provided clothing, food service, airport transportation, overnight accompaniment, monetary donations, and more to our neighbors from around the world who are passing through our city en route to their destinations.

Now, we see a pause in the asylum seekers coming to Albuquerque. This may be a time to turn to advocacy—urging our elected officials to develop sound policies with which to respond to asylum seekers and refugees. For that, we can look to an organization we know well: GLOBAL REFUGE, until recently, known as Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services. Lutherans have been involved in resettling migrating people for over a century.

Throughout the spring, let us look more closely at Global Refuge and its reason for being. First, we can review the history of Lutheran organizations helping displaced people. We can see the ever-widening embrace, beginning with displaced European Lutherans, moving to displaced Europeans more generally, and in recent decades, to virtually all God's children.

Brief History of Lutheran Assistance with Immigration:

In 1918, the National Lutheran Council in New York helped resettle Lutherans displaced by World War I.

During and after World War II, the Council resettled over 30,000 displaced people from Germany and Eastern Europe.

In subsequent years, Lutherans--as Lutheran Refugee and Immigration Service--helped resettle refugees from Cuba, Vietnam, Uganda, the Balkans, Sudan, Afghanistan, etc.

The Numbers of Displaced People Today: According to United Nations data, over 100 million people worldwide have been forcibly displaced from their homes. Some displacements are internal. In other cases, people flee to other countries. Reasons for leaving their homes include persecution due to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, and political affiliation. In other cases, the causes are wars and other violence, political instability, and climate disasters.

In the future, we'll look at some distinctions between asylum seekers and refugees and at tools for advocating on behalf of our global neighbors.

EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT

How many of you were thinking about your preschool years when you were "17" years old. Well, I have a perfect story to tell you about a little boy who attended preschool here in 2009-2011 and graduated from the program in 2011. Juandiego Encisco was that little boy. A few years later Juandiego's parents Juandeigo Sr. and Paula started their son in Boy Scouts. The highest honor in Scouting is to reach the Eagle Scout rank.

Juandeigo also had the dream, to become an Eagle Scout and at the time he said I want to do my Eagle Project at All Saints Preschool. Fast forward some 13 years later. Juandeigo and his dad came to visit me at the preschool asking if he could plan his Eagle Scout project at the church. His memories of preschool were vivid right down to the sick tummy he experienced on his first day.

Juandeigo's project was to clean the center court area between the church and preschool entrances and to add red paint to the curbs for firetruck parking. Juandeigo planned and organized the project to include other scouts and their parents for a day of cleaning. Thank you, Juandeigo, from All Saints Lutheran Church & Preschool and Ms. Marleta who had the honor of helping shape who you are today.

Music Ministry Notes

Erin Reil

God's dream is that you and I and all of us will realize that we are family, that we are made for togetherness, for goodness, and for compassion.

~Desmond Tutu

In the fall of 2023, singers from the choirs of All Saints, St. Michael's and All Angels, different family, and friends from across the nation, joined together to become a small new family of singers with the intent to learn 9 choral pieces for a Choral Festival in Dublin, Ireland. We all have different backgrounds, we are all different generations, we all have different levels of ability, yet we have all become one. We are looking forward to joining around 150 other singers from around the US and Ireland to share our gift of music and the message of love, life, and community in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin in June. Before we go, we would love to share some of this beautiful music with you, our friends and family, during an Irish Tea on St. Patrick's Day.
