Sermon

Hymn of the Day

Creed

I believe in God, eternal, almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, the Redeemer of all, the Only Begotten One;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, lived and loved among us, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried,
who descended into hell,
and on the third day rose from the dead.

Jesus, our Savior, ascended into heaven,
sits at the right hand of the loving God,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the dead, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayers of the People

Each petition ends with the words, Lord, teach us to pray to which all respond, In your mercy hear us.

Confession and Forgiveness

Invited by God and held in God's love, we confess our sins before God and one another.

Beloved Creator God,

You have called each one of us your child,
but as children often do, we disobey.

We hurt ourselves and others.

We insist on our own way rather than your kingdom's way.

We hoard what we have and deny others their due.

We see the sadness this causes you, and are dearly sorry for it.

We crave and covet your word of forgiveness.

God has not abandoned us to suffer in our sin. Instead, our loving Lord reaches out to us, longing for our return, day by day. Receive the blessing of your maker, and know the power of forgiveness that truly makes all things new. Amen.

Sharing the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you always
And also with you

Offering our Gifts

Offering Hymn

Lord, Be Glorified ~ ELW 744 (vs. 1,2,4)

Offering Prayer

Let us pray

Food for all. Provisions for all. Compassion for all. This is your will, O God. Use these gifts to bring about your kingdom on earth, through us, your willing servants.

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Prepare your hearts.

We prepare our hearts for God's bounty.

Let us give thanks to our loving God

It is right to give God thanks and praise

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...

we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

The musical notation is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff ends with a double bar line. The second staff continues the melody. The third staff ends with a double bar line. The fourth staff continues the melody and ends with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
you have brought us this far along the way.

In times of bitterness you did not abandon us,
but guided us into the path of love and light.

In every age you sent prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity.

The cry of the poor has become your own cry;
our hunger and thirst for justice is your own desire.
In the fullness of time, you sent your chosen servant
to preach good news to the afflicted, to break bread with the outcast and despised,
and to ransom those in bondage to prejudice and sin.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection,
we await the day when Jesus shall return to free all the earth from the bonds of slavery and death.

Join our prayers and praise with your prophets and martyrs of every age,
that, rejoicing in the hope of the resurrection,
we might live in the freedom and hope of your Son,
who teaches us to pray:

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Holy Communion

You are beloved of God, and this meal is for you. Come forward to the altar rail and stand or kneel to receive communion. The bread is gluten-free and there is wine or grape juice. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, you may come forward and cross your arms over your chest

1 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
2 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
3 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;

you suf-fered death our lives to save: have mer-cy now, we pray.
you set us free from guilt and grave: have mer-cy now, we pray.
e - ter-nal peace with God you made: give us your peace, we pray.

Communion Hymn

Blessing after Communion

Prayer After Communion

Loving God, our hearts overflow with thanksgiving at your mercy, and we long to show this gratitude in our lives. May generosity of spirit and of heart be our first step toward imitating you, whom we love, O Lord. Amen.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord's face shine on you with grace and mercy. The Lord look upon you with favor and ☩ give you peace. Amen.

Sending Hymn

Sending

Go in peace. Christ is with you. Thanks be to God.

Postlude

MISSION STATEMENT

As God's forgiven people:
We welcome all in Christ's love.
We grow together in faith and life.
We go out to love and serve others.

Welcome to All Saints Lutheran Church!

We are called by Jesus to love God and one another. We recognize that each person is a unique creation made in the image of God and we commit ourselves to treat each individual with respect and dignity and to welcome them with radical hospitality. Therefore, we commit to the continuing work of anti-racism, liberation, and social justice for all of God's beloveds.

We affirm the sacredness of all people. This includes sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions. We affirm the sacredness of all who have experienced exclusion or abuse because of race, ability, body type, culture, nation of origin, or economic status. We affirm the sacredness of those who struggle, whether it be with addiction, physical or mental health, or the things that seek to divide us from each other. Know that you are accepted and affirmed just as you are, no matter where you are in your lifelong faith journey.

We believe that through our open welcome we all grow in faith and love, and we invite everyone to participate as volunteers and leaders in our community. We need each other. It is by being in community together that we know God is here.
