GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Land Acknowledgement

We remember and honor the Indigenous people of the world, especially the Tiwa and Piro people, whose land we now occupy in this region that was once their home, and it was taken from them.

We acknowledge their continued presence in our community. We give thanks for them and express our gratitude for their witness on how to live a life that is honorable and humble.

May we always remember that the Earth does not belong to us; that we belong to the Earth and its Creator, and that we are all relatives in life.

Help us to learn from our past mistakes and be instruments of justice and peace for all people in today's world, particularly the original Indigenous inhabitants.

Sermon

Hymn of the Day

Creed

I believe in God, eternal, almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, the Redeemer of all, the Only Begotten One;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary, lived and loved among us, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried,
who descended into hell,
and on the third day rose from the dead.

Jesus, our Savior, ascended into heaven,
sits at the right hand of the loving God,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the dead, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayers of the People

*Each petition ends with the words, God of Promise, to which all respond, hear our prayer

Confession and Forgiveness

We confess our sins before God and one another.
Holy God,

You have created us in your image, protected and nourished us,
and called us into your work of justice.

Yet while we profess these truths, we forget who we are and whose we are.

We put our trust in ourselves, in material goods,
and in worldly powers instead of trusting you.

We prioritize our comfort over our neighbor's needs.

Call us back to you, God.

Forgive us our failings,

and direct us back onto the path you would have us tread.

You have been created in wholeness, claimed in love, and forgiven according to God's boundless grace. Nothing can separate us from the love of our God.

Receive this forgiveness with joy, in the name of Jesus, our savior and friend.

Amen.

Holy God, giver of all good things, receive the gifts we bring, fruit of the earth and the work of human hands, that they may be used to your purposes for life and love in the world. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry, full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Honor, praise, glory and thanksgiving to you, O God, our loving Creator...
All honor and praise to you, God of creative, dirty hands,
God of holy, wounded hands,
God who strengthens and guides our hands, now and forever.
Amen

Lord's Prayer

Remember us in your love, O Lord, and teach us to pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Postlude

Welcome to All Saints Lutheran Church!
God's Work. Our Hands. Our Voices.

We are called by Jesus to love God and one another.

We recognize that each person is a unique creation made in the image of God and we commit ourselves to treat each individual with respect and dignity and to welcome them with radical hospitality. Therefore, we commit to the continuing work of anti-racism, liberation, and social justice for all of God's beloveds.

We affirm the sacredness of all people. This includes sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions. We affirm the sacredness of all who have experienced exclusion or abuse because of race, ability, body type, culture, nation of origin, or economic status. We affirm the sacredness of those who struggle, whether it be with addiction, physical or mental health, or the things that seek to divide us from each other. Know that you are accepted and affirmed just as you are, no matter where you are in your lifelong faith journey.

We believe that through our open welcome we all grow in faith and love, and we invite everyone to participate as volunteers and leaders in our community. We need each other. It is by being in community together that we know God is here.
