

ALL SAINTS LUTHERAN CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

NOVEMBER 2025

Dearest All Saints Family,

For those I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting, my name is Erin, and I am the Music Ministry Coordinator for All Saints. It is my hope that in the past few years you have been able to surmise my belief that music is at the heart of faith – and faith is at the heart of life.

When we sing together, we breathe together. We listen to each other so we can stay in sync and in tune, adjusting our pace and volume, ebbing and flowing as we go along. Music is about unity.

And at the same time, music is also about embracing our differences. When we sing different notes in harmony, we become more than the sum of our parts. Different instruments, different abilities, different voices blend and contrast and complement each other. Music is about variety.

Unity, variety – and above all, music is about generosity. The generosity to listen, to cooperate, to make room for different notes and words and people – and to do it all for the sake of filling the world with beauty, and praise, and “making a joyful noise to God.”

The world can feel pretty grim these days – divided, unjust, and disheartening. We need as much beauty, justice, and joy in our lives as we can get, and for me, you and All Saints are an oasis of this kind of blessing. A place where we welcome all, work together, chip in, and make a joyful noise. A choir of contribution. A chorus of generosity.

So let's make this year's giving campaign the best one yet. If you haven't already, please fill out a commitment card (extras are at church!) and add your voice to the chorus.

We'll celebrate our “joyful noise” on November 16th, our Commitment Sunday. Please bring your pledge cards and your prayers. On November 23rd, we'll celebrate our commitments with a special Thanksgiving pie fellowship following worship.

Looking forward to seeing you there. And thank you!

Peace and Musical Blessings,

Erin Reil

p.s. How's your 30-Day Generosity Challenge going? Generosity isn't just a season; it's a way of life. You can do it – keep the faith!

Saturday, November 1, at 2:00 pm all are invited for a movie and movie snacks. We will watch The Prince of Egypt, an animated retelling of the story of Moses and the Exodus, which won Academy awards for its musical score. After the movie we will put together the Ofrenda for Sunday.

er will give an introduction to the ELCA's new social statement on Faith and Civic Life.

-On November 16 Ron Solimon will be with us again to talk about the Doctrine of Discovery and some history of the Pueblo people in NM.

Receiving New Members

On Sunday, November 23rd, we will receive new members by Affirmation of Faith. Worship will be followed by a reception and Thanksgiving pie celebration hosted by the Development committee.

In 1989, Dave Jarvis arrived at Rainbow Trail Lutheran Camp. After faithfully serving as Executive Director for 36 years, he announced earlier this year that he will retire effective December 31, 2025. During his tenure, Dave guided the camp through many changes and significant growth.

On September 17, 2025, the RTLCLC Board announced that they have selected and hired a new Executive Director, Dave Gunnlaugsson. Dave G has a long history with RTLCLC, beginning as a summer camp counselor and, more recently, serving as a speaker for the 2025 Rocky Mountain Synod Middle School Gathering.

With this transition, RTLCLC's vision and mission will continue to thrive under his leadership.

As some of you are aware, the Living Lutheran magazine – magazine of the ELCA – went digital a few years ago. Now, in response to popular demand, they are coming back with four print issues each year. All Saints can get a group subscription for members at $17 per person, compared to $20 if you pay individually. We can place a group order, but only for people who tell us they want the magazine; we will invite you to donate to support the cost. We can no longer provide a subscription for every member when we know so many don't read paper magazines.

You can also sign up for highlights from the magazine to be delivered to your email at no cost at <https://www.livinglutheran.org/edigest-signup/>

Please let us know in the church office if you would like a paper magazine subscription. We will place the order with Living Lutheran at the end of the year.

Construction of the new, necessary drainage system on the south end of the property is well underway, and will be completed in November. We have made an initial payment of $95,805. Please remember to continue paying your commitments to the capital campaign, as the second payment will be due by the end of the month.

PRESCHOOL KORNER NOVEMBER 2025

All Preschool and Childcare centers are a buzz with the Universal FREE childcare initiative roll out! Wait, is it ever as simple as it seems? Ms. Marleta is attending zoom meetings for parents and professionals, while Early Childhood Care Associations hold meetings and zoom sessions to help sort out what is about to take place.

How this will affect All Saints Preschool and Childcare center is yet to be determined! Pray for ALL those involved!

Meanwhile, the Preschool is full of infants, toddlers, preschoolers, and a waiting list has started. The teachers and staff are working diligently to meet all the requirements of the ECECD Focus Star program as we move towards final approval! -
